DETAILED ACTION

1. A response was received on 01 October 2007. By this response, Claim 14 has been canceled. Claims 15-29 and 31-33 have been amended. New Claims 34 and 35 have been added. Claims 15-35 are currently pending in the present application.

2. Upon further consideration of the pending claims, and in light of the amendments to the claims and addition of new claims, a requirement for election of species under 35 U.S.C. 121, as set forth below, has been deemed necessary prior to further examination of the application. As per 37 CFR 1.142(a), a requirement for restriction may be made at any time before final action. See MPEP § 811.

Election/Restrictions

3. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species A, methods for performing an authentication protocol where a chain of operations is determined based on performing a whole of a chain of operations in either their original state or a complemented state, as depicted in Figure 1 and described at page 5, line 18-page 6, line 18 of the present specification;

Species B, methods for performing an authentication protocol where a chain of operations is determined based on performing a part of a chain of operations in either their original state or a complemented state, as described at page 3, lines 12-23 of the present specification; and

Species C, methods for performing an authentication protocol where a chain of operations is determined based on a determination of performing each operation of a subset of a chain of operations in either their original state or a complemented state, as depicted in Figure 2 and described at page 6, line 19-page 7, line 22 of the present specification.

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Species A: Claims 25 and 26;

Species B: Claims 15-24 and 27-34; and Species C: Claim 35.

5. The species are independent or distinct because the three species are mutually exclusive. Specifically, it is clear from the descriptions in the specification and the Figures noted above that the three species are to be used as alternatives to each other; where in Species A, the second chain is based on performing either all of the operations in the entire chain in the original or the complemented state, in Species B, the second chain is based on performing all of the operations of a part of the chain in the original or the complemented state, and in Species C, the second chain is based on performing the operations of a subset of the chain in the original or complemented state based on a determination made for each operation. The claims therefore do not overlap in scope.

See MPEP § 806.04(f).

6. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.
MPEP § 809.02(a).

7. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
